

MITCH MAHONEY MONOLOGUE

MITCH:

You can't comfort these kids. They don't know yet that the good don't always win, so there's nothing you can say to cheer them up when they lose. I want to tell them disappointment doesn't last, but what I've seen, disappointment lasts like hell. I want to tell them words don't matter, but from what I've seen, words can get you killed. I just want to beat them up a little, so they understand that pain has degrees, and this is nothing – This is nothing, you little freaks! But that would violate my parole, so I do what I can. I give them a hug and a juice box. I'm here to give comfort.
